

SHOT DOWN IN HIS BANK.

PRESIDENT WYCKOFF CONFRONTED BY AN ARMED ROBBER.

In the Bank of New Amsterdam on Broadway at Noon Time—The Man Held Not a Word, but Presented a Written Demand for $5,000, with Death as an Alternative—Grappled With, He Shot the Bank President First and Then Himself—Both Heavily Wounded, but Mr. Wyckoff May Recover—Had the Robber an Accomplice?

George H. Wyckoff, President of the Bank of New Amsterdam, northwest corner of Thirty-ninth street and Broadway, was shot in the President's room of the bank at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a man who had demanded of him $5,000 in cash under penalty of instant death. After shooting Mr. Wyckoff, the man shot himself. Both are in the New York Hospital. Lacerations were done in both cases, and there is a chance that Mr. Wyckoff may recover.

There were comparatively few persons in the bank or in that part of Broadway when the shooting was done. Many of the bank clerks were at luncheon. Mr. Wyckoff was at his desk in the President's room, which is in the Broadway corner, and has windows looking out onto Broadway and upon Thirty-ninth street. The window curtains were half up. The President's desk is in the extreme corner, between a window facing Broadway and another facing Thirty-ninth street. Sitting at his desk he faced Broadway. At the back of the room behind him was the desk of R. R. Moore, the cashier, who was out at luncheon. Immediately to the left of Mr. Wyckoff's desk is a door leading to the counting room, and near Mr. Moore's desk is another such door. Both doors were open.

Anybody could look in from the street and it was found that he had been shot in the abdomen, just above the navel, and he was in great pain. He asked that a telegram be sent to his wife, carefully worded so that it should not alarm her, and that the Police Commissioner, Mr. E. J. Connelley, be notified. The Police Commissioner, Mr. E. J. Connelley, was at the store across Broadway, he was sent for.

"When the first shot was fired it was heard by four persons who were standing at the southwest corner of Thirty-ninth street and Broadway. These persons were Alex. McDonald, advertising agent for the Edison-Warner Trust, the singer, Mrs. Prunette, and James O'Reilly. When they heard the first report, McDonald said:

"Hello! Somebody's been shot over in the bank."

He had hardly spoken the words when a young man, not more than 22 years old, with a smart face, light hair, and dressed in a blue serge suit, light-colored shirt and black bow tie, dashed across Broadway and east down Thirty-ninth street.

"There's the fellow that did the shooting," cried Prunette, and with that he started after the man. Prunette's wife grabbed him by the arm.

"Oh, Will, don't! He may have a pistol with him. If you catch him he may shoot you."

Prunette's wife was looking at the man who had been shot. He was lying on the floor, his head back, his eyes closed. Prunette's wife was looking at the man who had been shot. He was lying on the floor, his head back, his eyes closed.

Sir Joseph Colmer Advises the United Empire Trade League to Work.

LONDON, June 15.—A conference of the United Empire Trade League was held in this city today.

Sir Joseph Colmer, Secretary to the Canadian High Commission in London, in his address to the league, which he had just received from the Hon. Featherstonhaugh of Toronto, Ont., at the recent congress of the chambers of commerce of the empire, declaring that the advantages of the league were as nearly as possible in the nature of a universal tariff, and that the league was a commercial union of the empire, and that the league was a commercial union of the empire, and that the league was a commercial union of the empire.

THE BOND INVESTIGATION.

SECRETARY CARLISLE TESTIFIES BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE.

He Tells Why He Gave Out Issue to the Belmont-Morgan Syndicate Without Advising—The Defeated Grangers Had—Did Not Tender Silver for Treasury Notes.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The investigation into the recent sale of bonds by the Government was begun today by the special committee of the Senate, of which Senator Harris of Tennessee is Chairman. Secretary Carlisle appeared to answer questions and to explain his communication regarding the bond issues sent to the Senate just before adjournment.

Secretary Carlisle testified that he had been asked by the Belmont-Morgan syndicate to sell the Government bonds to Europe and then return it. He wanted to stop shipments of gold of any kind to Europe, as such shipments caused uneasiness in financial and business circles.

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know

Batemans Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and other remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless your physician knows of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. SAMUEL PITCHER. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children will be kept well, and that you will have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

He Wins by Default in the A. A. U. Boxing Championships.

The annual tournament for the boxing and wrestling championships of the Amateur Athletic Union opened rather tamely at Madison Square Garden last night.

A large number of the admirers of the sport were on hand, and there was also a strong array of constables, but the police officials in charge of the event were not nearly so vigilant as they were in the case of the first night.

The interference reached such a stage after a time that Referee Harry Cornish had little voice in the decisions, and the onlookers became so enraged that they had to be cautioned to remain calm or have the show stopped altogether.

To the great delight of the assembled talent a few of the candidates cut loose at such a pace that there was no stopping them, and the proceedings were continued by what were practically the same old story.

The first round to relieve the monotony was George Schwegler of the New York A. C. and Seventh Regiment. He could find no one to oppose him in the middle-weight class, so, having won that championship in bloodless fashion, he went a fight lighter and got the best of a second round.

George Schwegler, a 140-pounder, was the first of the West Siders, in the first bout of the heavy-weight class, to take the prize. He was the first to the ring in time to save Herty, but to the surprise of all present A. McIntosh, in the opening round, was the first to take the prize.

BROOKLYN YACHT CLUB REGATTA.

Twenty-one Boats Sail in Their Annual Race.

The Brooklyn Yacht Club called its thirty-third annual regatta yesterday afternoon on the lower bay, and as usual with the races sailed under the auspices of this club brought out a large fleet of boats, and several hundred spectators witnessed
